THREE EVENTS MARK ITS CLOSE

Third Running of Jesse Brown Cup First at Benning's.

WON WITH EASE BY BILLIE HIBBS

Miller Up, Defeats Jubilee, With Radtke Up—Rose of Dawn Wins Benning Handicap—Essex Gets Hunters' Steeplechase.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Three interesting events to-day marked the last card of the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club at Benning—the third running of the Jesse Brown Cup, the eighth running of the second Benning Spring Handicap, and the eighth Spring Hunters' Steeplechase. In the Jesse Brown Cup race, interest was confined practically to two horses—Billie Hibbs and Jubilee. Miller had the mount on the former, and Radtke on the latter. Billie Hibbs was made an odds on favorite. Miller rushed him to the front at the start, and he had no trouble afterward, winning practically by two lengths from Jubilee, with Trey of Spades third.

Rose of Dawn won the Benning handicap, but had to be ridden out to get the decision. The Spring Hunters' Steeplechase was easy for Essex, the 1 to 2 favorite. Summary:

First race—Selling, seven furlongs—Belle of Jessamine (5 to 1) first, Wabash Queen (9 to 2) second, Jack McKeon (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:21.

Second race—The Jesse Brown Cup, four and one-half furlongs—Billie Hibbs (4 to 5) first, Jubilee (8 to 5) second, Trey of Spades (13 to 1) third. Time, 1:49 4-5.

Third race—Selling, Benning Spring Handicap, seven furlongs—Rose of Dawn (3 to 1) first, Lord Bonaparte (3 to 1) second, Slickaway (9 to 1) third. Time, 1:29 4-5.

Fourth race—Spring Hunters' Steeplechase, about two and one-half miles—Essex (1 to 2) first, Lysistrata (2 to 1) second, Guardian (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:09 2-5.

Fifth race—Handicap, steeplechase, about two miles—Dr. Keith (5 to 2) first, Commodore Fontaine (9 to 10) second, Rock Storm (13 to 5) third. Time, 4:09.

Sixth race—Selling, mile and forty yards—Bulwark (9 to 5) first, Sally K. (10 to 1) second, Dekabar (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:48.

BALTIMORE TIES SCORE IN NINTH

Orioles Find Mulhall in Sixth and Pound in Three Runs.

GAME CALLED IN THE TENTH

Salve Does a Pretty Piece of Pitching Before Being Relieved. Cassidy Is Substituted Too Late for Good—Local Team Makes Good Showing.

Manager Shaffer's Lawmakers partly retrieved their defeat at the hands of the New York Americans on Friday, April 13th, by holding the Baltimore Orioles, who won from the Highlanders a few days ago, to a 4 to 4 score in ten innings of sensational baseball on the Broad Street grounds yesterday afternoon. As a matter of fact, the locals should have scored a victory. Had Manager Shaffer not substituted Mulhall for Salve in the sixth session, it is safe to say that there would have been a different tale to tell. Until the sixth the little southpaw, Salve, had the visitors at his mercy, and allowed but two hits in that time. Richmond was four to the good, and Pop, thinking that the game was all over, laid out in order in the tenth, and Umpire Stanton called time on account of darkness.

Leaving out the fatal sixth, it was one of the best games ever seen on the local field this season. Salve pitched a masterpiece, and why he was sent to the bench is a mystery. As it was, the winners got but five hits, and the losers five also. In the sixth, Herne batted for Burchell, and in the seventh, Mueller, a right-hander, with a world of speed and a versatile assortment of curves, was put on the firing line. He held Richmond safe, allowing but one stingy bingle and passing but one man.

In the ending of the sixth it seemed as though Richmond would score. Shaffer laid out a beauty to left, and went to second on Hinton's screamer to the pitcher which that worthy was unable to handle. Long was used as a pinch-runner for Salve and drew free transportation, filling the bases. Titman hit a nasty one back of the first-base line, which Herne got after a hard run. Shaffer tried to get home on the throw. Hinton was called out at the plate. During a petty wrangle which followed, Hinton stole third. Reeve then got a pass, again filling the bases, but when Herne knocked an easy one into Burchell, the latter threw O'Neil out at the plate, retiring the side.

How the Runs Were Made.

Titman led off for Richmond by smashing the ball fairly on the nose for a pretty three-bagger. Reeve drove a hot one to Hall, who was unable to do anything but lace it over to first in time to get Reeve, while Titman scored. Herfron walked, and showed his appreciation of Burchell's kindness by pilfering second.

Wallace also ambled to the initial sack on a pass.

Hunter off first with a mean one to Salve, who held O'Hara on first by a petty throw to catcher.

On Shaffer then pulled off a neat scorable play on Dunn's pop fly back of second.

There was nothing more doing in the run-getting until the third, when Richmond crossed the pan twice. Both titlows were due to errors by Burchell.

Reeve got a life on Burchell's muff of an easy one, and went to second a moment later when Hall, who attempted to take the catcher's throw, booted the leather. Herfron got to first when Burchell failed to hang onto his drive to the box, and which was thrown to handle.

On Kirkpatrick's out from pitcher to first both men moved up one, and scored a moment later when Burchell threw wild to Hunter on Cowan's at-

VIRGINIA FINDS GEORGETOWN EASY

Blue and Gray Go Down in the First of Series by Score of 9 to 0.

PITCHES GREAT BALL

Susong Allows But Thirty-One Batters to Face Him During Entire Game.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTE, N.C., April 13.—Virginia found little trouble in taking the first of her series of games with Georgetown, the Blue and Gray being vanquished to-day by the one-sided score of 9 to 0. Despite the cold western wind, which blew directly in the faces of the spectators, the crowd was the largest of the season. The day being a general holiday, nearly the entire student body was present, and enthusiasm was at a high pitch throughout the contest.

At the close of the game the undergraduates poured from the stands upon the field, and joining hands, formed a circle around the running track, finally making a rush for the flag-pole, which had been snatched from the roof of the grandstand and implanted in the center of the field. After forming in a column the students marched through college and down into the city. On the way they encountered William Jennings Bryan, who was returning from a visit to Monticello. The Nebraska was forced to bow his thanks many times, amid great applause.

Susong Did Well.

Susong, the curly-haired Tennessee boy, who twirled for Virginia, never pitched a better game in his life. He held the Blue and Gray hitters safe throughout, allowing but three hits. One of these, a liner to short right-field by Mudd, would have been an out, had Thom made an accurate throw. Susong also fielded his position perfectly, taking care of every chance offered him, including several neat bunt plays. The clever southpaw, who started out for Georgetown, lasted only a little over two innings. Hoff opened up with a corking drive over second, and Dalton lined one to right-field, which Duggan allowed to get away from him long enough for Hoff to race the home. Them was passed to first. Sawrie hit to short, who threw to the home plate too late to catch Dalton. Woodson dropped a neat little fly just over Smith's head, and both Thom and Sawrie tallied.

Here Captain Montgomery was substituted for Devine, and before he could settle down Honaker had nailed a single to center, scoring Woodson. The total of five runs took all the heart out of Georgetown, the Blue and Gray batters going out thereafter in almost one-two-three order. During the nine innings only thirty-one batters faced Susong.

Visitors Get to Third.

Virginia added two runs in the seventh. Dalton cracked a single to left garden, was sacrificed to second by Thom, and went all the way home on Johnson's hit, which singled Montgomery's head. Scheller made a wild throw to first, and Johnson never stopped until reaching third. The all-Southern halfback counted a mo-

AQUEDUCT WILL OPEN WITH A BIG HANDICAP

Metropolitan Season to Open With $10,000 Event and Strong Entries.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The metropolitan racing season of 1907 will open Monday at the Aqueduct race-course of the Queens County Jockey Club with the $10,000 Carter Handicap as the feature. Nineteen horses of undoubted calibre with the famous old champion sprinter Roseben at the head of the list, are posted as started in the handicap. Roseben was the winner of the Carter Handicap last year, and this aged Ben Strome gelding, holding the world's record at the distance—seven furlongs—undoubtedly will go to the post as favorite. He probably will be closely pressed in popular favor by De Mund, who is reported from Benning's to have rounded into a three-year-old of merit.

Brookdale Nymph is nicely placed, with only 115 pounds up. In fact, Handicapper Vosburg has been lenient with every one of the nineteen probable starters. De Mund's weight, 108 pounds, ought not to stop a good horse, and the Carter will be a test of his ability.

Malacca comes to the Carter fresh from a victory in the first division of the Benning spring handicap, and, with only 90 pounds to carry, ought to go well over the course. The race, as it looks to-night, has a decidedly open appearance. The other probable starters are: Oxford, 122; Glorifier, 119; Brookdale Nymph, 115; Pretension, 114; Rye, Avanteur, 109; Juggler, 110; Don Diego, Comedian, 108; Orbiular, 105; Colonel Jack, Okento, 99; Tilting, 97; Marster, 93; Annappe, 92.
